

SERVICE OF SHADOWS

7:30 p.m. April 17, 2022

This service is an adaptation of an early fourth-century worship service, traditional to Holy Week. The church is well lighted at the beginning of the service. The lights dim as it continues, until, at the end, the sanctuary is shrouded in deep shadows. The gradual extinguishing of the lights and candles is symbolic of the flight of the disciples and the resentment of the world leading to the final isolation of Jesus on the cross. At the conclusion a bell is tolled thirty-three times, recalling each year of Christ's life.

*Procession Of the Father's Love Begotten (Hymn 108) DIVINUM MYSTERIUM

*Responses

Leader: My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from my cry and from the words of my distress?

Response: O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; by night as well, but I find no rest.

Leader: All who see me scorn me, laughing at me; they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying:

Response: "He trusted in the Lord; let God deliver him; let God rescue him, if God delights in him."

Leader: I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; you were my God when I was still in my mother's womb.

Response: Be not far from me, for trouble is near, and there is none to help. (Ps. 22)

Leader: Let us join our hearts and voices in our Prayer for Special Grace.

Prayer for Special Grace (unison)

Forbid, O God, that we should forget, amid our earthly comforts, the pains and mortal anguish that our Lord Jesus endured for our salvation. Grant us this night a true vision of all that he suffered, in his betrayal, his lonely agony, his false trial, his mocking and scourging, and the torture of death upon the cross. As you have given yourself utterly for us, may we give ourselves entirely to you. Amen.

Call to Confession and Prayer of Confession (unison)

Holy God, before you all hearts are open, and from you no secrets are hid. We bring you now our shame and sorrow for our sins. We have forgotten that life is from you and unto you. We have neither sought nor done your will. We have not been truthful in our hearts, in our speech, and in our lives. We have not loved as we ought to love. Help us and heal us, we pray. Raise us from our sins to a better life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
